I CON

JOIN US FOR VITALSTATISTIX'S FINAL EVENT FOR 2016, A WORK-IN-PROGRESS SHOWING AND ARTIST TALK BY ATLANTA EKE.

I CON is a new work-in-development by artist, dancer and choreographer Atlanta Eke. Atlanta joins us again after her acclaimed Body of Work at this year's Adelaide Festival, this time at Waterside.

I CON is a choreographic study of how musicians are immortalised through a culture of nostalgia and reproduction. The developing style of the work will oscillate from the iconic physicality of artists such as Joy Division front man Ian Curtis, to new and transformative dance.

I CON continues Atlanta's interests in simulation, popular culture and the corruption of the present tense. It is set to become a sharp, witty and explosive artwork performed with a live band. Atlanta is developing I CON with Vitalstatistix through our Incubator residency program.

END OF YEAR PARTY!

Stick around for the Vitals end-of-year party. Totes po-mo femmo record-playing Bad Jelly DJs will play a hit list of nostalgic bangers inspired by dead music icons, complemented by projections by Heath Britton and set in a sculptural graveyard of pop-zombies by Jo Kerlogue.
